School Report.

For the year ending February 15, 1917.

Our schools, nine in number, have been in session twenty-nine weeks.

The year was divided into three terms, one in the spring and two in the fall and winter, closing the last week in December. This is fewer weeks than we have been having in the past few years, but we were very fortunate in securing the services of a number of teachers who have had either normal training or its equivalent in experience, and we are sure that though it was necessary to sacrifice a little time to meet the salaries, the time lost has been more than made up in the quality of the work performed and in added interest among the scholars.

Because of the small number of scholars it was deemed advisable to close the Meadow school for the past year. The children beyond reasonable walking distance were conveyed to the Bay school.

We have been very fortunate this year in having our school work unbroken by sickness.

The following teachers have been employed: Calef Hill, Laura H. Putney first term, Sara Wells second and third; Square, Marion York first term, Clara E. Stanton second and third; Hunkins, M. Pearl Colby; Bay, Dorothy Lincoln; Gaza, Stella Thomas first term, Lena B. Morey second, Rose Keenan third; Chapel, Maud Z. Tilton; New State, Jennie D. Blake; Osgood, Lilian L. Ring; North Sanbornton, Mary E. Shaw first, Bertha Johnson second, Stella Thomas third.

We have nineteen students taking advantage of high school courses in the nearby towns.

We call attention to the statistical table and financial report.
